TO THE

King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in PARLIAMENT Assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, do begg leave to return our unfeigned Thanks to Your Majesty for putting an End to the Patent formerly Granted to Mr. Wood for Coining Copper Half Pence and Farthings for this Kingdom, by a full and effectual Surrender of the same to Your Majesty. We esteem it a remarkable Instance of Your Majesty's Royal Favour and Condescension, and have the highest Sense of Duty and Gratitude that can fill the Hearts of the most Loyal and Obedient People: And we shall always endeavour to make such suitable Returns as may convince the World how truly sensible we are of the Happiness we have continually enjoyed under Your Majesty's most Mild and Gracious Government. And that the Preservation of all our Religious and Civil Rights must, under God, be owing to the Support of Your Majesty's Government, and the Succession in Your Royal Family.

We shall likewise do our utmost Endeavour to Preserve and Cultivate a strict Union among the Protestants of this Kingdom, who we are sensible, have one common Interest, and cannot but know by repeated Experience That they have one common Enemy.

And we beg leave to assure Your Majesty, That we will by a good Temper and Unanimity in our Proceedings Contribute all we can to the Quiet and Welfare of this Kingdom, and that we will readily concur in every thing that may Advance Your Majesty's Service and the Support of Your Government.

We cannot on this Occasion without Injustice omit returning our most Humble Thanks to Your Majesty for having appointed His Excellency the Lord Carteret our Governour; whose great Abilities and unwearied Application and Diligence have equally contributed to the Service of Your Majesty and to the Happiness of this Kingdom.

To

To which ADDRESS His Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following Moſt Gracious ANSWER, Viz.

GEORGE R.

THE Dutiful and Loyal Addreſs from the Houſe of Lords of Ireland gave His Majeſty great Satisfaction, and they may be aſſured, That His Majeſty will always have the greateſt Attention to the Intereſt and Safety of His People of that Kingdom.

Die Veneris 29°. Die Octobris, 1725°.

IT is Ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Aſſembled, That the Addreſs of this Houſe to His Majeſty of the Twenty Third of September laſt, and His Majeſty's Moſt Gracious Anſwer thereunto, be forthwith Printed and Publiſhed.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

BY Virtue of an Order of the Right Honourable the Houſe of Peers, I do Appoint Andrew Crooke, Printer to the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty, to Print this Addreſs and Anſwer, and that no other Perſon do preſume to Print the ſame.

En. Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

4 JA 56

DUBLIN: Printed by Andrew Crooke, Printer to the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty, at the King's-Arms in Copper-Alley, 1725.